Rev. W. A. Maclean,

298 Charles Street,

Winnipeg, Man.

Dear Mr. Maclean:

Rev. R. H. Miller of Glace Bay, N.S. was a student of mine in Halifax. I always regarded him as a man of ability and character, one on whom people could rely as a hard worker, and I should think him a thoroughly capable man, who ought to do well at whatever he sets his hand to do. I do not know the character of the King Memorial Church, and only in a general way do I know anything about Mr. Miller's preaching, but anything that I have heard has been favourable.

Yours sincerely,

President.
